On The Hill.

On the third Lord's Day, in January, Bro. J. W. Head will preach at Lebanon Church. Subject: "Recognition of Saints."

Miss Corda Adams, Miss Shirley, Mr. Graves and Mr. Bohannon, of Jacksonville, were the guests of Miss Eva Cain and Miss Corn Martin last Sunday.

Mr. Dinkie, of Harp, is old enough to marry now, as he was seen last Sunday On The Hill walking with a cane (cane). Just keep a walking Mr. Dinkie, perhaps you will meet with The Middlemore Girl.

Mr. Austin is not half so crazy as reported. But he actually has a maine martine. We think he has courage enough to keep trying. We heard that he had excellent luck on his last bird hunt. That's right, Mr. Austin; if you don't have the good luck to secure the prize at the first trial, just remember that patience and perseverance overcome mountains. But we will assure you that there is no such obstacles in your way as mountains.

Mr. John Moore, of Benson, had business of importance up here last Sunday. Another bird hunter, I suppose.

Let's turn over a new leaf at the beginning of the new year.
THE MIDDLEMORE GIRL.

The laws of health are taught in the schools, but not in a way to be of much practical benefit and are never illustrated by living examples, which in many cases might easily be done. Some scholars who had just contracted a cold was brought before the school, so that all could hear the dry, loud cough and know its significance, and the thin white coating on the tongue and later, as the cold developed, see the profuse watery expectoration and thin watery discharge from the nose, not one of them would ever forget what the first symptoms of a cold were. The scholar should then be given Chamberlain's Cough Remedy freely, that all might see that even a severe cold could be cured in one or two days, or at least greatly mitigated, when the remedy is treated as such as the first symptoms appear. This remedy is famous for its cures of coughs, colds and croup. It is made especially for these diseases and is the most prompt and most reliable medicine known for the purpose. 50 cent bottles for sale by J. W. Gayle. 13-1m

Between The Pikes.

Hurrah, Christmas is here! Wonder if we will get to go to all the parties? Hope so.

Mr. Warren Pulliam was preparing to put a roof on his chimney; his idea for so doing being to prevent Santa Claus from invading his sanctuary. Had he done so he would have missed all those nice toys.

Died—Mrs. Belle Huette, wife of James J. Huette, of consumption. Patiently she bore her suffering and was never heard to murmur or complain, but seemed always calm, and when the summons came it found her ready to answer the Master's call and as sweetly sank to sleep as she waited the dawn of that beautiful morn, where a robe and crown has long been prepared.

Mr. G. L. Mitchell is our boss athlete, but while attending to a summer suit he dislocated his shoulder and coat sleeve, and has since been unable to entertain us.

Among the Colored Children.

Miss Mary Wilson, who is attending school in Lexington, is spending the holidays with her parents in the city.

The Capital City Lodge and the Industrial Legion have given notice that they will give an entertainment on an early date.

A new club will be organized next month.

Miss Sophi Rickman is one of the City School teachers who are spending the holidays at their homes.

The Rev. Mr. Credit has given much satisfaction to the members of his congregation, the First Independent Baptist Church.

Miss Katie Washburne has been on the sick list.

The Powder Horn Club, in their elegant costumes, attended an entertainment at Lexington this week.

Some of the members of the Hyperion Club were in Lexington this week.

The Hyperion Club is a prosperous one. The best part of the city are members of it, and everything they have undertaken has proven a success.

As the Merry Christmas and New

Year Bells die out, the wedding bells will take up the cheerful sound. One of Frankfort's most popular daughters, Miss Susie Ellis, will be led to the hymenial altar by Mr. Gaines, of Midway, on the 8th day of January, 1891. The many friends of the young couple hope the New Year may be a blissful one to both.

Miss Meed left Wednesday for Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowman Adams will spend Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Taylor, in Louisville.

There was one club entertainment here this week. The others were being entertained in different cities in the State.

Mr. James Woodridge is on the sick list this week.

The committee from the Industrial Legion have selected Messrs. John Hays and Edward Lane to deliver an address on Odd Fellowship on the first Wednesday night in January. Our people should not fail to attend, as Capital City Lodge will also have speakers present.

The writer has been sick for some time past, which is the reason his items have failed to show up as usual. He is now at his post again, and all items for this column can be left as before.

Not This Year.

Some of the little children who know all about Santa Claus; his miniature sleigh and his tiny reindeer never saw a Christmas with snow. If this thing goes on the picture books will have to change Old St. Nick's method of traveling over the country.—Georgetown Times.

An Open Letter.

SKANATELES FALLS, N. Y., Feb. 14, 1890.

Messrs. Kenyon & Thomas Please send me as before your dozen of your Dr. Hale's Household Ointment. Since so many have had lagrippe and pneumonia I have had great success with the Ointment. I saved the life of one man with the Household Ointment. He had pneumonia; his lungs were filled up; the doctor said he could not live; he then sent and told me; I at once went with my wife to see the man, taken with me two large boxes of the Ointment. I first gave him a dose internally, then applied it to his chest, covering him with hot flannels. In less than half an hour he began to throw up matter from his lungs. I kept giving him some every half hour. The next morning he could breathe freely. He is now about well and will be at work next week. Truly yours,

Wm. S. Hale, Supt. of the Weeks Manufacturing Co. This wonderful medicine is sold at South Side drug store. P. H. CARPENTER.

Mr. Milam moved that finance committee be authorized to receive bids for the publication of 500 copies of the ordinances. Adopted.

The council then adjourned until next Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock.

Nervous Prostration

Is a disease rapidly on the increase in America, where everything is going at such a rapid pace night and day. Men young in years are constantly breaking down from over-work. Everybody needs a reliable nerve tonic, something pure and pleasant. Such a remedy is found in Dr. Hale's Household Tea, a purely vegetable medicine, the great Nerve Tonic. It restores nerve power and vigor as nothing else can. Has cured St. Vitus Dance of years standing. Acts directly upon the nerve centres, imparting health and strength. Try the great new remedy; 50c per package at South Side drug store. P. H. CARPENTER.

Kentucky boasts of her pretty women, fine horses, blue grass, and her celebrated Gant's magic chicken cholera cure, which is sold on the "no cure, no pay" plan, by Phil. Carpenter.

WE CAN AND DO

Guarantee Dr. Acker's Blood Elixir, for it has been fully demonstrated to the people of this country that it is superior to all other preparations for blood diseases. It is a positive cure for syphilis poisoning, Ulcers, Eruptions and Eruptions of the skin, and the whole system and thoroughly builds up the constitution. J. W. GAYLE, Druggist.

His Address Wanted.

Can anyone furnish us with the address of Prof. W. W. Wash, who was raised near this city. It is thought that he taught for a time in a college at Lexington, Missouri, but left there and went to California. Anyone knowing of his present location would confer a favor by leaving his address at this office.

The C. & O. train due here Thursday evening did not arrive until about 9 o'clock yesterday morning, and was in a rather battered and damaged condition. Christmas Gifts.

The clerks, postmen and others, connected with the post-office, surprised Postmaster Jas. M. Saffell and Assistant Postmaster Chas. W. Saffell, on Wednesday morning, by presenting the former with an elegant gold-headed cane and the latter with a fine silk smoking jacket. Mr. Harry Rogers was the spokesman for the boys, and in presenting the cane to Postmaster Saffell, said:

MR. SAFFELL: Representing the employees of the post-office in Frankfort, I am commissioned by them to present you with this cane as a slight testimonial of their appreciation of you as a public official and personal friend. This hallowed season, when peace and good will every where reigns, makes it particularly appropriate that we should, in some way, attest our sense of your uniform kindness and courtesies to each one of us. Be pleased to accept it, my dear sir, in the same spirit we tender it with a wish that it may be many years before you will need its assistance in life's journey; but may it ever be near to assure you of our highest esteem and sincere friendship for you as long as life shall last.

Mr. Saffell was too much surprised to do more than thank the boys, but will prepare his remarks later and publish them in pamphlet form. The cane is a beautiful ebony one, and the head is very heavy, handsomely decorated, and bears the following inscription:

James M. Saffell, P. M.

Post-office,
December 25, 1890.

The employees of the Hermitage Cooper Shop presented Mr. Hiram Berry with a handsome silver pitcher Wednesday afternoon. Mr. C. A. Nelson, foreman of the shop, made the presentation speech, and Mr. Berry responded in a very feeling manner.

Capt. W. G. Thompson was handsomely remembered by the members of the Johnson Guards and other friends, on Thursday morning.

And last but not least, we are wealthy; we wear diamonds. The ROUNDABOUT, Blindery and Jewelers, God bless them—the best people in the world—remembered the old man with a handsome diamond scarf pin. Miss Maggie Griffin, of the Blindery, made the presentation speech, and, as usual, caught us when we were least suspecting it, and, of course, we were like the little boy the hen ran over: had nothing to say. May the kind wishes which prompted the gift never grow dim while the handsome little stone continues to sparkle.

St. Francis, Wis., Oct. 3, 1890.
I suffered from temporary sleeplessness for over two years, for which I used Foster's Kid's Nerve Tonic, and can recommend it as the best medicine for similar troubles.

A member of my congregation used Foster's Kid's Nerve Tonic with good results. The patient was so nervous that he could not sleep for weeks. He suffered from the most intense anxiety which bordered on insanity. I gave the person some of Foster's Kid's Nerve Tonic and he was cured. The anxiety disappeared, the headache left, and so did the sufferer, who had almost despaired, is enjoying excellent health.

Our Pamphlet for sufferers of nervous diseases will be sent free to any address, and poor patients can also obtain this medicine free of charge from us. This remedy has been prepared by the Reverend Father Koenig of Fort Wayne, Ind., for the past ten years, and is now prepared under his direction by the

The MAGIC REMOVER finds a long felt want with owners of Horses or Mules with Warts, Knots, Bruises, Cuts, Strains, Sprains, Old Sores, Barb Wire Cuts, etc. It makes no difference how long the knot has been there, or how hard it is, (if it is not of the bone), we will take it off on the "NO CURE, NO PAY" plan. In removing the knot the hair comes off, and the place becomes very sore; when you stop using it, the hair comes back its original color, and not a trace of the knot is left. Christmas Weather.

The weather on Thursday was of the old time Christmas variety. It commenced snowing early in the morning and kept it up until late in the afternoon, when the snow changed to rain and sleet, and yesterday morning everything out of doors was covered with ice and snow. Branches of trees were broken off, telephone wires were broken down and walking upon the streets was dangerous. Those who wished for a "white Christmas" got it with a vengeance.

Miss Natalie Sawyer will take a limited number of pupils for instruction in drawing and water-color painting. The class will meet on Saturdays only, commencing Jan. 17th.

DIED.

READING.—At the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. H. C. Dunham, in this city on Monday, December 22, 1900, Mrs. Margaret Reading, aged 85 years.

IN MEMORIAM.

"When some proud son of man returns to earth, Unknown to glory but upheld by prayer, The sculptor's art exhausts the pomp of woe, And storied urns record who rest below." This language of immortal Byron, in giving expression to his own feelings, is a fitting epitaph upon the soul of a man who lived a life of quietude, unobtrusive and unassuming. Walter Forbes, a once familiar form upon our streets and highways, has gone, but his memory and few letters he so poor as to do his memory reverence! His genial, unselfish nature brought him many transient friends, whose admiration found expression only while he lived to furnish fuel for the sentiment. Now that the dark river flows 'twixt him and us, and the music sweetness of his low voice ceases to thrill with its pathos, we forget his loss, and pass his memory to the angels without even so much as a single notice of his taking off.

"When some proud son of man returns to earth, Unknown to glory but upheld by prayer, The sculptor's art exhausts the pomp of woe, And storied urns record who rest below." This language of immortal Byron, in giving expression to his own feelings, is a fitting epitaph upon the soul of a man who lived a life of quietude, unobtrusive and unassuming. Walter Forbes, a once familiar form upon our streets and highways, has gone, but his memory and few letters he so poor as to do his memory reverence! His genial, unselfish nature brought him many transient friends, whose admiration found expression only while he lived to furnish fuel for the sentiment. Now that the dark river flows 'twixt him and us, and the music sweetness of his low voice ceases to thrill with its pathos, we forget his loss, and pass his memory to the angels without even so much as a single notice of his taking off.

Morgan's Raid.

Gen. John H. Morgan's audacious raid across the Ohio will be the subject of three papers in the January Century. Under the title, "A Romance of Morgan's Rough Riders," the first chapter, by Gen. Basil W. Duke, describes "the Raid," and relates numerous amusing incidents as well as daring exploits; Gen. O. B. Wilcox's chapter on "The Capture of the Hundred," and the capture of him and the last of his followers near the Pennsylvania line; while Capt. Thomas H. Hines, in "The Escape," gives a thrilling account of the means, invented by himself, by which Morgan and a few of his officers tumbled out of the Ohio penitentiary and made a perilous journey to the Confederate lines.

The: Eminent Specialist, formerly resident Physician of the Philadelphia General Hospital, Physician in charge of the Ohio Medical Institute, Cincinnati, Ohio, has for twenty five years successfully devoted his time to the treatment of his special cases. He successfully treats all curable cases of Chronic and Acute Diseases. His treatment is based on the latest experience after thorough educational preparation.

"Rheumatism is essentially a disease of the nervous system, as all tests investigating prove beyond a doubt. Acting upon this theory we have for years treated Rheumatism with the most successful results. The treatment and best efforts required from Rheumatism patients may all be avoided or forced by our treatment."

"Bright's Disease of the Kidney is the result of faulty nutrition, over stimulation, or the use of improper remedies to increase the flow of urine."

"Diseases of the Digestive Organs are the most frequent causes of the nervous system. Stomach, Liver, Gallbladder, Pancreas, and Intestines, all result in nervous, muscular, and mental derangement. Early interference is necessary to cure, cure and prevent."

"Young Men, who are really approaching insanity and death from neurasthenia will be interested to learn. These habits are the result of dissipation, overwork, and over exertion. We have for years treated these cases with the most successful results. The treatment and best efforts required from these cases may all be avoided or forced by our treatment."

"Spitapex or Pits.—This phenomenon of the nervous system is the result of disease located in the sacral centers. The treatment of neurasthenia, with its various forms, has been the most successful in the world to produce radical cures in the most debilitated cases."

"Every person consulting us should bring or send four or six ounces of their urine, which we will submit to a thorough microscopical examination and chemical analysis, a certificate and chart of which will be furnished the patient. We care only of the patient and the skill of other physicians.—Why? Because our extensive experience enables us to recognize the causes of disease. We invite all who have failed to obtain relief elsewhere to consult us. All curable cases are guaranteed. All cases and correspondence strictly confidential. Treatment sent C. O. D. to any part of the United States and Canada. Address with stamp for reply. Dr. C. H. Bogman, Cincinnati, O. P. O. BOX, 703.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT

FRANKFORT, DECEMBER 27, 1890.

Runaway Hoosiers.

Mr. Robert S. Taggart and Miss Carrie Long, a runaway couple from some point in Indiana, were married at the County Clerk's office, at 10 o'clock Monday night, by Judge Ben G. Williams. The parents of the groom opposed the match, hence the elopement.

Obscene Letter.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Con. McCarty arrested Frank Steele at Versailles on Wednesday, upon a charge of sending an obscene letter through the mails, preferred by Mrs. Mary T. White, of Woodford county. He was brought before Commissioner Ford and held under a bond of five hundred dollars to appear on Monday for an examining trial. The letter has been filed by Mrs. White with the affidavit for the warrant, and the case will create considerable stir when it comes to trial.

Eye put Out.

Mr. Geo. B. Thomson was repairing a pair of steps, at his home on Second street, Monday, and his little boy, Robbie, was standing near looking on, when the nail Mr. Thomson was driving broke in two, a part of it flying and striking little Robbie in one of his eyes, destroying the sight. The little fellow has been peculiarly unfortunate of late, for one day last week he fell down stairs at the City School building and bruised his face very badly. He was also a favorite music pupil of the late Prof. Mauer and the Professor was just beginning to give him his usual lesson upon the violin when stricken with death.

For pain in the stomach, colic and cholera morbus there is nothing better than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by J. W. Gayle. 13-1m

The Midland Extension.

Judge Mann has called the Magistrates to convene Saturday, for the purpose of voting on the question of granting an extension of the terms of the subscription of the Kentucky Midland, one year from January 1st. The enabling act passed at the last session of the General Assembly, makes it a condition of the extension that the company shall in no event sell out to the Kentucky Central or its assigns.

Justice to the Little Rock and North Middletown precincts demands that this road be completed, and it most certainly will not be completed unless more time is granted. This will be the last road to ask for a subscription in the next hundred years, and we believe that the people generally concede the fact that further time should be granted.—Bourbon News.

A son of Mr. M. D. Pusser, a merchant of Gibraltar, N. C., was so badly afflicted with rheumatism for a year or more, as to be unable to work or go to school. His father concluded to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm on the boy. It soon cured him and he has since walked one and a half miles to school and back every school day. 50 cent bottles for sale by J. W. Gayle. 13-1m Bald Knob.

Mrs. Brumley and daughter, of Louisville, visited Mr. L. W. Shackelford, Mrs. Brumley's brother, last week.

Mr. Henry Rogers visited Mr. Joe Hamilton, at Benson station, last Saturday.

School at this place has closed until after the holidays.

I would like very much to make the acquaintance of the Middlesex Girl. I will go with Mr. Austin bird hunting next time; perhaps I will meet her then. He has such good luck bird hunting, especially on the hill.

Let us see: Two women had 30 chickens each, which they took to market. They agreed to divide equally the proceeds of their sale.

One sold her chickens 2 for a dollar, getting for her 30 chickens $15.00.

The other sold her chickens 3 for a dollar, getting for her 30 chickens $10.00.

This made $25, realized for the 60 chickens.

The merchant called on to divide the money said:

You sold your 30 chickens 2 for a dollar and you sold yours 3 for a dollar, that makes 60 chickens at the rate of 5 for $2.00. Well 5 into 40 goes 12 times, twice 12 is 24, that makes $24 your chickens have brought.

But as shown above, the women actually had $25 in pocket. And yet the merchant's figures were right. Do figures lie?

[You are wrong. The merchant's figures were not correct, because he makes one woman sell 3 every time the other sells 2, although they had exactly the same number: or, in other words, 36 chickens are sold at 33 cts, while 24 are sold at 50 cts, but the example says 30 were sold at each price.—Ed.]

Fat Man's Club.

The "Fat Men's Club." This is the title of a musical comedy given at the Academy of Music last night by J. C. Stewart and his company before a large audience. First and foremost of course, comes J. C. Stewart, whose mammoth size does not prevent his being the life of the play. His comicalities kept the audience in a roar, and his efforts at fun-making were ably seconded by the company which is far above the usual farce aggregation, especially in the way of specialties. The singing of the female members of the company was especially good, and was encored at every possible opportunity. The entire efforts of the company are directed towards creating laughter, and the success is beyond a doubt. If you have the blues the "Fat Men's Club" will bring about a cure.—The Landmark, Norfolk.

At the Opera House, Wednesday, December 31.

Poor, pretty, little, blue-eyed baby. How he coughs! Why don't this mother give him a dose of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup?

Upon a fair trial I find Salvation Oil the best cure for rheumatism I have ever known. It gives relief more quickly and always does its work. JOSHUA ZIMMERMAN, Wetheredville, Md.

From Nature's Storehouse

Comes all the component parts of S. S. S. There is no chemical nor any thing which comes from the chemist's shop contained in it. S. S. S. is therefore a perfectly safe and harmless remedy, yet so powerful is it that it has never failed to cure blood poison. It always cures scrofula, if taken before some vital part is so seriously impaired as to render a cure impossible. It relieves mercurial rheumatism, and cures all sorts of eruptions, pimples, blotches, &c, by eliminating the poison from the blood. S. S. S. has cured thousands of cases of skin cancer, and many cases of scrofulous cancer. It is no experiment to take S. S. S. Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed free. A CHILD KILLED.

Another child killed by the use of opiate given in the form of Soothing Syrup. Why mothers give their children such deadly poison is surprising, when they can relieve the child of its peculiar troubles by using Dr. Acker's Baby Syrup. It contains no opium or morphine. See by J. W. GAYLE, Druggist.

SHILOH'S CURE will immediately relieve Croup, Whooping Cough and Bronchitis. For sale by J. W. Gayle. 28

The Wonderful Tower.

The highest structure in the world is the Eiffel Tower, at Paris, 1,000 feet high. But the great discovery of Dr. Franklin Miles is certain to tower far above it in promoting human happiness and health. This wonderful nerve medicine builds up worn-out systems, cures fits, spasms, headache, nervous prostration, dizziness, sleeplessness, monthly pains, sexual troubles, etc. Mrs. John R. Miller, of Valparaiso, Ind., and J. D. Taylor, of Logansport, Ind., gained 30 pounds a month while taking it. Finely illustrated treatise on "Nervous Diseases" and sample bottle of the Restorative Nervine free at J. W. Gayle's drug store, who guarantees it.

PRATTS KILLER FOR BED BUGS.

This preparation is superior to all others to the following reasons: It kills the bugs instantly. It actually destroys their eggs, therefore it is only necessary to use it once or twice during the season. It possesses advantages over insect powders inasmuch as it can be used in places which they cannot reach. Its odor is agreeable, and it is warranted not to injure carpets, linen or furniture. No fatal effects can result from its use, as it contains no poison, which fact should give it a place in every household. Sold in bottles at 25 cents each. For sale by H. A. Row on the Train.

A lot of drunken men on train No. 21 on the L. & N. Wednesday afternoon, got into a row and smashed the glass of one of the doors of the front car, when Conductor Throckmorton, who was in charge, promptly stopped the train and was about to put the party off, but they cooled down and promised to behave themselves when he carried them on to their destination.

Not Yet.

We have received the following: Mr. Editor—The report is current in this neighborhood that one John Isbell, who was sent from this county to the Penitentiary for horse stealing, was killed while trying to escape. As the ROUNDABOUT has not mentioned it we would like it if it will give, through its columns, the desired information.

A CITIZEN OF WARREN CO.

Isbell was not killed in attempting to escape from the Kentucky Penitentiary, and is now within the walls of that institution very much alive.

Thousands Poisoned.

In a recent work on Heart Disease, Dr. Franklin Miles—the noted specialist—gives many new and startling facts. Thousands of people are slowly poisoning themselves, weakening their hearts by the use of tea, coffee, tobacco and alcohol. These are heart whips, causing it to beat rapidly, thus gradually wearing it out, producing shortness of breath, when exercising, pains in the side and shoulder, hungry and faint spells. Finally heart failure and sudden death. For weakened and irritated hearts the press everywhere highly recommends the New Heart Cure discovered by Dr. Franklin Miles, which is for sale at J. W. Gayle's drug store.
